OUR WESLEY NIGHT PROGRESS & POWER GUEST SPEAKER

will be Aaron Scott, from the non-profit organization Scarlet Hope. Scarlet Hope works to help women in the sex industry find their way out through work study programs, competency classes and education, and the power of Jesus Christ. Their bakery, in downtown Louisville, provides women who have had past arrests and legal altercations with work experience and mentoring programs. This Wesley Night will give us an introduction to the Human Trafficking Conference to be held on Saturday Feb. 16.

CHRISTIAN SIMPLICITY Six-week Wesley night discussion course facilitated by group members. It includes readings and practical suggestions for practicing a simpler more compassionate life. 7-8pm in Room 113. Books available for $12. Contact Cullen Hornaday at cullen@stpaulchurchky.org

SERVE

BLESSING OF THE BOARDS

As you come, go, and pray during the next two weeks, you are invited to share a blessing for the Habitat home we are building with Ericka Kato and her three little boys. As you come into worship or as you depart today, please take a moment to write your favorite verse or some blessing on the boards we have stationed around the sanctuary.

SIGN UP TO HELP BUILD OUR HABITAT HOUSE There are green sheets tabbed in your bulletin that allow you to sign up for all areas of help with our Habitat House. Please fill them out and drop them in the paint buckets, or put them in the yellow folder at the information desk.

CALL TO PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL CONFERENCE of the United Methodist Church that takes place Feb. 23-26. The best way we can support what happens there is to dedicate ourselves to prayer for all the people who will be involved in the conference. Here are two ways you can support through prayer:

- 1) Set an alarm on your phone to remind yourself to pray from 2:23-2:26pm every day.
- 2) Attend the prayer service here in the sanctuary at 7:00pm on Tues. Feb. 19. The service will include music, prayers, and Holy Communion.

LEARN

NEW BOOK STUDY SLIGHTLY BAD GIRLS OF THE BIBLE by Liz Curtis Higgs will meet in the Parlor (219) beginning this Tuesdays at 10:00am. Sign up and get the book at the Information Center. Facilitated by Debi Huff. Questions? Contact Cullen Hornaday, cullen@stpaulchurchky.org

STOP HUMAN TRAFFICKING Saturday, February 16; 9:00am-12:30pm, McAdams Hall; Free and open to the public. The St. Paul United Methodist Women are hosting a conference to educate the community on human trafficking and to identify opportunities to provide support and assistance to its victims. Questions? Contact Angela Brooks at angela@stpaulchurchky.org.

CAREGIVERS RETREAT Friday, February 22, 6-9pm, and Saturday, February 23, 9am-4pm. For anyone who is caring for or in service to others. This retreat is for your rejuvenation. Sign up for this free event at the Information Center or by calling the office. If you would like to help prepare homemade bread and soup for the retreat participants that Friday afternoon, contact Cullen Hornaday. Questions? Contact Cullen at cullen@stpaulchurchky.org or Marilyn Stoner at marilynstoner@fastmail.fm

JOIN US FOR A LENTEN BOOK DISCUSSION based on A Crazy, Holy Grace: The Healing Power of Pain and Memory, by Frederick Buechner. This four-week Wesley Night study addresses how God's grace is present for healing in our losses, pain, and sorrow. Wednesdays, 7:00-8:00pm, March 13, 20, 27, & April 10 in the Parlor (room 219). Books available at the Information Center for $11.00. Questions? Contact leaders Kel Thrush, kebethrush@live.com, or Mark Johnson, markstories54@gmail.com.

CONFIRMATION started January 13 with seven confirmands: Cate McMahan, Sarah Timm, Camille McCay, Julia Bradley, Ella Pena, Hayden Bishop, and Noah Benton. They are meeting weekly to discuss topics such as: prayer, Jesus, the Bible, the kingdom of God, worship, and ways to experience God. Confirmation meetings happen on Sundays from 10-10:50 in the Youth Center through March 24.

MUSIC

MUSIC AT ST. PAUL PRESENTS international concert organist, Gail Archer, in recital in the St. Paul sanctuary on Sunday, February 24 at 3:00 pm. Dr. Archer will present a varied recital, including works from her latest CD, A Russian Journey. New York Music Daily describes Gail Archer as, "this era's most adventurous interpreter of the classical organ repertoire."
